

DEPAUL ACADEMY 2024 ANNUAL REPORT

DePaul Academy provides residential services, therapeutic support, and structured programming for young men with mild mental health needs, histories of trauma, and experiences of abuse or neglect, as well as those who have struggled in less restrictive environments. Located within the St. Joseph County Juvenile Justice Center, DePaul offers an academy-model residential treatment program that fosters diverse social and educational interactions, supporting students' growth, resilience, and overall competency development.
